Yes Vote Urged On School Bonds

By CARL E. VENSTROM
Editor-Publisher

Next Tuesday, September 17th, is the day the registered voters of this area go to the polls and cast a "yes" or "no" vote on the passing of school bonds for our San Joaquin Elementary School District.

We sincerely hope the voters will see fit to vote "Yes" since the bonds are badly needed for the district to meet the rapidly, consistent increase of student enrollment.

This newspaper ran an editorial last week endorsing the passage of this bond issue with the reasons why. We are running another editorial again this week asking the voters to vote "YES" since we think the passage of these bonds are so important to the continued, first class growth of our area.

The bonds will have to be passed sometime within the near future for the school district to exist. If they fail this time, the district may lose good teachers, and the building programs will have to be held up. When this happens, the quality of an educational program drops, and drops hard.

A brief summary of the facts of the present status of the San Joaquin School District would include:

(1) In 1960 El Toro had 30 pupils; in a few days, more than 3,500 students will be attending the schools in El Toro alone.

(2) In 1965-66 there were 66 teachers with 1800 pupils in three schools. In 1968-69 there will be 215 teachers with 6300 pupils in eight schools.

(3) In 1964 the local voters, by a 10 to 1 margin, voted a bond issue for $5,000,000. With the rapid increase of enrollment during the past four years it is now necessary to again give approval for school bonds for another $5,000,000.

(4) The need for the monies received from the bonds are for the purposes of school construction, school site purchase, and equipment to meet the increasing demands of student enrollment.

If you want more information on this important bond issue we suggest you call Superintendent Ralph A. Gates at 544-1170 or Dr. William D. Stocks, assistant superintendent, at 544-8551.

It appears to this newspaper that next Tuesday, September 17th, is the day for us to stand tall and go to the polls and vote "YES" for the future of our youngsters and our community.

SPACE PACE — Construction, as with everything else in the "Speedy Sixties," moves at a lightning pace at North American Rockwell Corporation's Laguna Niguel site in Orange County. But not fast enough to suit Jack Hadley and Renie Schebesch who were ready to give and take dictation while giant earthmover prepares ground for million square-foot building planned there. Models are product of photographer's imagination, but they'll have to leave before builders begin construction in October on Autonetics' Data Systems division building, due for completion in late 1969.

Old-Timer, South Coast Hospital Are Winners

By Dan Wooldridge

"How lucky can I get!" exclaimed McKay Mitchell of Laguna Hills when he saw his social security number posted for the $100 prize in the Herald Examiner.

Mitchell, who in January fell and suffered a broken hip immediately endorsed the Herald Examiner check over to the South Coast Community Hospital Expansion drive.

"I was lucky that the people of Laguna Beach built the South Coast Hospital in 1962 and it was ready and available for me when I needed it." McKay and his wife have already contributed to the hospital expansion fund, but according to Mitchell, "this is like manna from heaven and it will do a small part to provide facilities for those who follow us."

The Laguna Hospital has been the chief location where the 15,000 residents of Leisure World obtain hospital care. The existing 152 beds are normally full and the expansion is necessary according to Mitchell who is a member of the major gifts solicitation committee for the hospital fund group. The target goal for the Laguna Hills area is $1,000,000 and Mitchell's $100 is a step in the right direction.

Mitchell presented his check to Ray B.X. Denham, co-chairman of the Fund Drive for Laguna Hills and Major General Floyd L. Wergeland, M.D., Senior Vice President for Medical Affairs at the Leisure World Medical Center and co-chairman of the Expansion Fund drive.

McKay Mitchell is well-known to readers as the RANCHO REPORTER'S columnist - the old-timer.

20-Piece Don Ellis Band To Open University Park Shopping Center

The only "big band" ever to be invited to perform in concert with Zubin Mehta and the Los Angeles Symphony will play in Orange County at University Park Shopping Center on Sept. 14 when the Merchants' Association there celebrates the opening of The Irvine Company's sixth community shopping center.

University Park may be reached by travelling south on the Santa Ana Freeway to the Culver Drive cutoff. The shopping center is located at Culver Drive and Matthews Road in Irvine.

The public is invited to attend the musical program which will run from 8 to 12 p.m. The parking lot will be cleared for dancing and no-host refreshments will be available.

After Ellis' concert with the Los Angeles Symphony, Leonard Feather, world-renown jazz critic, said that the youthful musician "draws on every source from Copland to Sibelius to Gershwin to Kenton and could be the force which pumps new life into the main stream of music."

Mehta directed Ellis' concert jazz work entitled "Contrasts for Two Orchestras and Trumpet" at which an amplified Indian sitar, a stringed instrument, was first heard in the Los Angeles Music Hall.

"The Hollywood Reporter" Concert Review column said that though standing ovations are commonplace in Los Angeles, the crowd would not let Ellis and Mehta go until they re-appeared for half-a-dozen curtain bows."

Ellis has performed as soloist with Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra in several concerts in the now-famous national-televised children's concerts, and in recordings for Columbia Records. He has also played with Glen Miller's Orchestra under the direction of Ray McKinley, Charlie Barnet, Woody Herman, Maynard Ferguson, Claude Thornhill, Lionel Hampton, George Russell and Charlie Mingus.

In addition to the music, other festivities and events have been scheduled for the day. The University Park Community Association will serve a breakfast from 7:30 to 10:00 a.m.,

Informal Tea Set At St. Nicholas

An informal Tea is being given by St. Nicholas Council of Catholic Women on Sunday afternoon, September 15, from two to four o'clock, in the Parish Hall, according to Mrs. Clyde Leslie, Membership Chairman, who is directing the planning of the affair, allwomen of the parish are invited as guests.

This is the first social function of the new season and it is hoped that all women of the parish as well as past, present, or inactive members of the Women's Council will attend.

This will afford an opportunity for all Catholic women of St. Nicholas to become acquainted informally, announces Mrs. Robert F. Harbor, President of the Council of Catholic Women.

EDITORIAL COMMENT:

Watch For Your Children

CARL VENSTROM

School begins this week and thousands of youngsters will be running and playing on their way to and from school. Let's do our part to make sure that they are able to have that education and not be a traffic fatality.

San Joaquin School District has more than 6,300 pupils and these students in their eagerness to get back to school frequently jump-out from behind parked cars, cross streets against lights and signs, and ride their bikes in busy streets.

Let's make the school year 1968-69 a safe one by promising ourselves that we will slow down in school areas, residential districts, and in shopping centers before and after school. Who knows that the child killed might be your own.

St. George's Fills Christian Educ. Post

Rev. Frederick Hammond, Vicar of St. George's Episcopal Church in El Toro this week announced the addition of a Consultant in Christian Education.

Jessie Hunter will join St. George's to direct the Sunday School program and to counsel and advise in other areas of Christian Education.

In conjunction with this addition to the St. George staff, Father Hammond announced the Sept. 15 service will be held outdoors and during the 9:30 a.m. service information relating to the Sunday School program will be disclosed.

St. George has had rapid expansion in their attendance at Sunday School — last year about 60 attended and this year Father Hammond anticipates 125. Teachers will be drawn from parents of the children and Brian Wilson of Mission Viejo will serve as Sunday School Superintendent.

Father Hammond expressed happiness and pride at the addition of

JESSIE HUNTER

Jesse Hunter to the St. George family. Jesse has served for the past quarter century in various capacities relating to Christian Education.

According to Father Hammond, Jesse has served the Missionary District of Nevada, the Diocese of Northern Indiana, the Diocese of Nebraska, the Diocese of Los Angeles, and the Diocese of Montana. Currently Miss Hunter works with the St. Luke's Church in Long Beach.

Saddleback Sets Night Directors

Two Saddleback College staff members have taken on additional assignments of part-time administrators of the extended-day program.

They are Howard Marcou, division chairman of business science, and John Flood, coordinator of counseling and guidance.

They will be responsible for working two evenings each week from 5:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Extended-day classes, which will be for college credit, will be offered Monday through Thursday.

Currently 50 extended-day classes are being offered.

Students vs. Police Chicago Style

Editor's Note: Dan Wooldridge, News Editor of the RANCHO REPORTER took a leave of absence to attend the Democratic Convention in Chicago last week. Mr. Wooldridge is a recent graduate of Chapman College and this is his view of what happened in the streets of Chicago. It does not necessarily reflect the view of the management.)

By Dan C. Wooldridge

Blue shirted and helmeted police and green uniformed and helmeted national guardsmen facing anti-war demonstrators from every state in the union was the scene in the streets of Chicago.

The thousands of students came to Chicago to express their views about the war in Viet Nam and the closed convention of the Democratic Party in this tangled year of politics 1968.

These thousands of students had been heartened by Senator McCarthy and hurt by the murder of Robert Kennedy, but they were now being bitterly disillusioned by Mayor Richard Dailey and the Chicago police.

By Wednesday evening when the 3rd Battle of Grant's Park took place on national television these young people felt trapped and bitterly antagonistic, but then you really can't blame them. Castigated by the establishment as being dirty and unkept these young people acting out of conscience showed that they were "involved" in American politics. Night after night these young people were brutally attacked and beaten by police in the name of "law and order." Refused permits to march and parade to which they felt constitutionally entitled, these young people returned to their homes beaten and bloodied, but convinced that they were in the right.

While Senator Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut was nominating Senator McGovern, hundreds of young people were singing "America the Beautiful" while peacefully marching down Michigan Ave.

While Senator Ribicoff of Conn. was attacking Mayor Dailey and the police verbally, hundreds of young people were being beaten without provocation.

While Senator Ribicoff of Conn. was being booed by the Illinois delegation; hundreds of young people realized that existing political institutions have no place for these young.

While Senator Ribicoff of Conn. was having Mayor Dailey's fist waved at him, hundreds of young people decided that America wasn't beautiful.

The first sign knocked down by the Chicago police in that memorable charge in front of the Conrad Hilton was appropriately, "Welcome to Prague."

Students responded to the unprovoked attack with whatever was available — like the expression "there are no athletes in the foxholes" — there were no non-participants in front of the Hilton. For most people it seemed a question of life or death as the waves and waves of helmeted club welding police attacked and attacked and attacked.

During the two police charges on the Hilton sidewalk numerous people within an arms length of this reporter were beaten while from their mouths came a haunting tune, "Oh say can we see by the dawn's early light . . ."

During those eire hours on Michigan Blvd. this reporter saw students throw rocks, signs, and shake fists while shouting, "the streets belong to the people — the streets belong to the people."

During those sire hours on Michigan Blvd. this reporter saw police throw tear gas, use MACE, beat hundreds of heads while at least one group of police shouted, "kill, kill, kill."

Laguna Greeter Joins YMCA Sustaining Drive

Eiler Larson, Laguna's Greeter, came within a few of being the 650th YMCA Sustaining Member.

Eiler wanted to support the work of the YMCA and he did so by becoming a Sustaining Member on Thursday, August 8th, when he popped into the YMCA office and asked, "Will this help?"

He was greeted with a "Yes, it will," and a hearty Helooooo.

"Y" Director Roger Carter said, "Eiler keeps in regular touch with the YMCA and has shown a real, honest interest in the program since I can remember. Wherever I see him, he asks how things are going and I tell him of the YMCA's growth and service to more and more boys and girls. We appreciate his interest and the interest of hundreds of others. We started out with about 90 friends and today, we have over 638 so we have a lot to be thankful for. With friends like Eiler, how can you go wrong?"

Thus far the YMCA has raised $15,118.00 in its 1968 Sustaining Drive. It needs $18,500.00 to finish the year in the black.

Red Cross Plans GI's Christmas

Santa Claus in September and with a reason!

Your American Red Cross, Orange County Chapter, this month is preparing 2650 Christmas gift ditty bags to go to servicemen in Vietnam. Sewing groups throughout the county are already cutting and stitching the bags.

Letters are now being sent to all clubs and churches requesting donations to fill them.

Mrs. Robert Burnside and Mrs. James F. Stewart of Laguna Hills, newly appointed chairmen for the project, say each bag will contain a safety razor and supply of five blades, ballpoint pen, playing cards, wash and dries, packaged stationery with self-seal envelopes, nail clipper, comb, tin of nuts, bag of candies and pre-sweetened Kool-Aide. The contents are valued at $3.00.

Judging from thank-you notes the American Red Cross received from servicemen last year, the items in these gift bags are eagerly received and particularly appreciated.

Any person wishing to donate three tax-deductible dollars to fill a bag or to supply any of the items to be contained is urged to mail contributions to your American Red Cross, Orange County Chapter, 2215 No. Broadway, Santa Ana, California 92706.

Ayudantes Auxiliary Of Children's Home Society Hosts Gift Bazaar

By Dan Wooldridge
The Children's Home Society is sponsoring a Christmas Happiness Sale with unusual and different bazaar gifts made by the groups members.

Showing of these gifts will be at a Salad Luncheon at the Mission Viejo Recreation Center on Monday, Sept. 30 at 11:30 a.m.

All local residents are invited to attend the luncheon for $1.25 and to examine and purchase the gifts. Ticket information may be obtained by calling 837-6862 or 837-6646. People are welcome to come after the luncheon to examine and purchase the items from 1:00 - 2:30. Prices of the gifts range from $1 to $10.

The Ayudantes Auxiliary of the Children's Home Society is sponsoring the benefit with all proceeds going to the groups chief charity — aiding the placement of children in adoption homes. This group is California's largest adoption agency with hundreds of children placed annually in loving homes.

Christmas Seal Competition Set

All professional artists, designers and art students should plan now to enter this year's "Christmas Seal Design Competition", according to Bill Hill, president of the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of Orange County. Entries are due October 1.

Hill said prize money for Orange County artists will be $100, first; $50, second. The national winner receives $1000.

Artists are urged to call or write the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of Orange County for rules: 1104 West
